Choose coverage to fit your needs

Your employer is giving you the option to enroll in Short Term Disability Income Insurance, which means that if a disabling illness or injury prevents you from working, you'll still be able to replace a portion of your income.

When you become disabled, you must complete a waiting period before benefits are payable. (Learn more in the "Before benefit payments begin" section below). When they begin, here's how much you'll receive:

Coverage Amount
60%
of your weekly earnings

Coverage Amount
Coverage Minimum	$25 per week
Coverage Maximum	$1,250 per week

	Waiting period	Waiting period <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ The benefit waiting period for a disability caused by an accidental injury is 7 days▪ The benefit waiting period for a disability caused by a sickness is 7 days
	How long benefit payments last	Short Term Disability Income Insurance is intended to replace income for a disability that lasts just a few weeks. The maximum amount of time that you're able to receive Short Term Disability benefit payments is 25 weeks.

How much does it cost?

Rates shown are guaranteed until: 12/31/2025. Your premiums are deducted on a post-tax basis.

Use the chart below to find your monthly cost, based on the amount of coverage you'd like to elect. You can elect 60% of your basic weekly earnings. (Your "basic weekly earnings" are the weekly salary or wage you receive from your employer, not including commissions, bonuses, overtime pay, any other extra compensation, or income received from sources other than your Employer).

Exclusions and limitations

Benefits are not payable if your disability results from any of the following:

- Sickness or injury which occurs in any armed conflict, whether declared as war or not, involving any country or government.
- Sickness or injury which occurs while you are on military service for any country or government.
- Intentionally self-inflicted injury or illness, whether you are sane or insane.
- Injury which occurs when you commit or attempt to commit a felony.
- Injury suffered in a fight in which you are the aggressor.
- Sickness or injury due to cosmetic or reconstructive surgery, except for surgery necessary to correct a deformity caused by sickness or accidental injury.
- Sickness or accidental injury for which you have or had a right to payment under a workers' compensation or similar law. This includes payment you would have been entitled to receive if the Policyholder had not declined to provide workers' compensation insurance as allowed by the Policyholder's state of domicile.
- Sickness or accidental injury arising out of or in the course of work for pay, profit or gain.

Benefits are not payable for the portion of any period of Disability that you are confined in a penal or correctional institution as a result of conviction for a criminal or other public offense.

Benefits are not payable if your disability is due to a pre-existing condition and you became disabled during the first 12 months your insurance is in effect. A pre-existing condition is a sickness or accidental injury for which, during the 3 months immediately before the effective date of your insurance or increased amount of insurance, you did one or more of the following: received medical treatment, care, services or advice; or took prescribed drugs; or had medications prescribed.

Even though you may experience multiple reasons for your disability, only one Disability benefit is payable at any given time.

Your benefits will be reduced by other income you are eligible to receive while disabled. These include but aren't limited to:

- Income received from any form of employment
- Unemployment benefits and any type of income replacement provided by your employer
- Workers' Compensation benefits or benefits from similar programs
- Judgments or settlements you receive related to disability
- Disability or retirement payments under Social Security or other federal and state plans
- Disability income payments under automobile liability insurance benefits
- Disability income payments payable under any other group insurance policy and certain retirement payments provided under your employer's retirement plan

*Limitations and exclusions will vary by state and by your employer's benefit plan.
